

Expanded List of Continuing Education Activities

Continuing professional development is part of good professional practice. Associate Members of FPAM are required to complete 20 CE points every 2 years whereas Certified Members are required to complete 30 CE points every 2 years with 2 CE points on Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct being compulsory.

CE Activities	CE Points
Seminar – Code of Ethics and Professional Conducts	2
FPAM Annual Conference	10
Third Party CE Courses conducted by SIDC, MIA, MIT and MII	1 point per hour of course attendance Maximum 15 points of the required 30 points
Annual Subscription to Magazines - Smart Investor - 4E Journal - Money Compass	5 5 5
CE Courses conducted by Zones / CE Providers	10 points for 1 full day course 5 points for ½ day course
Writing or reviewing an article on financial planning for FPAM's 4E Journal	5
Serving on FPAM Board	5 per attendance at Board Meeting
Author of published books related to approved financial planning topics	10 per book published. *Maximum points per year is 10.
Design & Development of CFP Module Course Materials for FPAM's registered Education Providers	10 per written module developed and completed. *Maximum points per year is 10
Teaching of CFP modules, CE Course Speaker	*1 point for 1 hour of lecture conducted up to 10 points per year

*The rationale for limiting to 10 CE points a year is to encourage members to participate in more than 1 CE activity.